Dear Mr. Bergstrom:

We have watched the progress of the Caribbean Tourism Association in promoting travel to the area for some time and we are impressed with the high grade of professionalism demonstrated. We would like therefore, due to Panama's geographical position to become a part of this organization.

This letter is a formal application of the Panama Government Tourist Bureau for membership in your organization. We trust that this application will be favorably considered and welcomed by the distinguished members of your Board of Directors. We wish to propose that as General Director of the Panama Government Tourist Bureau the undersigned forms part of your Board, representing the Panama Government, with our Marketing Director Erick A. Pinto as my alternate.

Yours very truly,

W. ARTURO MCGOWEN

Att: Mrs. Audrey Hawks

Dear Audrey:

This will probably come to you as a surprise since you have just recently met our general manager, Mr. Arturo W. Mc Gowen, in your office on Jan.20.

I have just received word that Mr. Mc Gowen has been replaced as general manager of the Panama Government Tourist Bureau in Panama by Dr. Jorge Arosemena. I believe you have the mailing address in Panama.

May I suggest that you change your records accordingly and if you have not as yet written a letter of invitation to Mr. Mc Gowen to attend the up coming board of directors meeting as an observer, that you direct this letter now to Dr. Arosemena.

I further request that you advise me of the date and place of said meeting as soon as you can so that I may telex this information to Dr. Arosemena prior to the receipt of your letter.

I trust that you give your personal attention to this matter and await your call should you require any additional information.

With best personal regards, I remain,

Yours very truly,

PANAMA JOINS THE CARIBBEAN TOURISM ASSOCIATION

Panama was accepted as the twenty-fifth member country of the Caribbean Tourism Association by the CTA Board of Directors when it met in New York on March 26, 1981.

The government of Panama cited their reason for desiring membership in the CTA as the high level of professionalism demonstrated by the Association in promoting travel to the Caribbean.

Panama's application for membership was unanimously approved by the CTA Board of Directors, who noted that with the country's membership, CTA would grow culturally and geographically.

Mr. Rolando De Freitas, Assistant General Manager of the Instituto Panameno de Turismo, who represented his government at the meeting, thanked the CTA Board for the confidence expressed in its approval of Panama's application.

He further stated that Panama was honored by its membership in an organization of CTA's prestige.

Panama will be officially represented on the CTA Board of Directors by Dr. Jorge Arosemena, General Director of the Instituto Panameno de Turismo. In his absence, the country will be represented by Mr. De Freitas.

Panama, with Belize and Costa Rica, brings the number of Central American countries in CTA's membership to three.
